Brief report of the activity	Counselling Program aim to guide young individuals toward successful careers in accounting and finance. CAFY focuses on equipping youth with skills for roles like financial analyst, bookkeeper, and management accountant, emphasizing numerical proficiency and real-world application. It offers workshops, mentorship, and career exploration to align aspirations with industry demands, addressing the sector's projected growth (BLS data). Super Mage complements this by providing personalized counseling, using psychometric assessments and one-on-one sessions to identify strengths and interests. It supports youth in navigating career transitions through goal-setting, skill-building, and job placement assistance. Both programs foster informed decision-making, enhance employability, and address modern workplace complexities, empowering youth to pursue fulfilling careers in accounting and finance with confidence and clarity.
