Republic of India

Mahatma Gandhi

Though India became a free nation on August 15, 1947, it declared itself a Sovereign, Democratic and Republic state with the adoption of the Constitution on January 26, 1950.

A salute of 21 guns and the unfurling of the Indian National Flag by Dr. Rajendra Prasad heralded the historic birth of the Indian Republic on that day. Thereafter 26th of January was decreed a national holiday and was recognised as the Republic Day of India.

The Constitution gave the citizens of India the power to choose their own government and paved the way for democracy. Dr. Rajendra Prasad took oath as the first President of India.

Republic Day marks the day when the Constitution of India came into effect on 26 January 1950, making India a sovereign democratic republic. It reminds us of our fundamental rights, duties, and the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

Objectives

- To commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India.
- To create awareness about constitutional values, fundamental rights, and duties.
- To promote patriotism, unity in diversity, and national integration.
- To encourage student participation in co-curricular and cultural activities.
- To inculcate leadership, discipline, and social responsibility among students.

Programme Schedule

- 9:00 AM – Unfurling of the National Flag
- 9:05 AM – March Past
- 9:20 AM – Principal's Message
- 9:40 AM – Prize Distribution
- 10:00 AM – Cultural Programmes

Description of the Event

The programme commenced with the gathering of faculty, staff, students, NCC cadets, and NSS volunteers at 8:30 AM.

At 9:00 AM, the Principal unfurled the National Flag followed by the National Anthem. The ceremony instilled a sense of pride and patriotism among all attendees.

The March Past by NCC cadets, NSS, Red Cross, Women Empowerment Cell and Department wise reflected discipline and dedication. The principal, in his address, highlighted:

- The significance of the Constitution of India
- The role of youth in nation-building
- Institutional achievements during the academic year
- The importance of civic responsibility and ethical conduct

Prize Distribution was conducted to recognize meritorious students in academics, sports, cultural competitions, and NSS/NCC activities.

Cultural programmes included patriotic songs, group dances, and speeches that showcased India's cultural diversity and unity.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks.
