

Department of statistics

Action taken report

2018-19

Observations:

The following are the observations made from the feedback given :

1. Syllabus is not completed completely within the stipulated time.
2. Some students feel that more field trips are better.
3. Some students are having trouble with prescribed reading.
4. They want the library books related to the course to be available in the department library.

Action Taken Report :

1. Due to non availability of teaching staff, there is delay in completion of syllabus. It is to take the necessary action through the principal sir.
2. It will be arranged the books with the cooperation of the staff and the principal in the department.
3. It is difficult to raise the funds for transportation and lodging. Hence this problem is resolved through principal sir

Department of statistics

Action taken report

2019-20

Observations:

The following are the observations made from the feedback given

- i) Most of the Students are satisfied with course content and curriculum, helpful for both placements and Higher education.
- ii) Completing the syllabus within the stipulated time, the students are aware of the subject.
- iii) Some students feel that more field trips are better.

Action Taken Report:

- i) We will help the students who are difficult for the subject through Remedial classes.
- ii) It is difficult to raise the funds for transportation and lodging. Hence this problem is resolved through principal sir

Department of statistics

Action taken report

2020-21

Observations:

The following are the observations made from the feedback given

- i) Most of the Students are satisfied with course content and curriculum, helpful for both placements and Higher education.
- ii) Completing the syllabus within the stipulated time, the students are aware of the subject.
- iii) They want the library books related to the course to be available in the library.
- iv) Some Students are having trouble with prescribed reading
- v) Some students feel that more field trips are better.

Action Taken Report:

- i) It is proposed that new books will be brought in central library in accordance with the changed syllabus.
- ii) We will help the students who are difficult for the subject through Remedial classes.
- iii) It is difficult to raise the funds for transportation and lodging. Hence this problem is resolved through principal sir

Department of statistics

Action taken report

2021-22

Observations:

The following are the observations made from the feedback given

- i) Most of the Students are satisfied with course content and curriculum, helpful for both placements and Higher education.
- ii) Completing the syllabus within the stipulated time, the students are aware of the subject.
- iii) Some students say that they are not providing course and lecture outline in the beginning.
- iv) Some Students are having trouble with prescribed reading.

Action Taken Report:

- i) Newly arrived guest faculty, those who have recently completed PG. So, they must know and teach you.
- ii) We will help the students who are difficult for the subject through Remedial classes

M. Suresh

Department of statistics

Action taken report

2022-23

Observations:

The following are the observations made from the feedback given

- i) Most of the Students are satisfied with course content and curriculum, helpful for both placements and Higher education.
- ii) Completing the syllabus within the stipulated time, the students are aware of the subject.
- iii) Some Students are having trouble with prescribed reading
- iv) Some students feel that more field trips are better.

Action Taken Report:

- i) We will help the students who are difficult for the subject through Remedial classes.
- ii) It is difficult to raise the funds for transportation and lodging. Hence this problem is resolved through principal sir.

