

BEST PRACTICES

- guidance for advanced learners
- Co Conducting career guidance and counselling for further courses
- Guiding the students in choosing the best career opportunities
- Imparting practical knowledge to the students by arranging field trips, study tours and project Special attraction of old coins
- works
- Arranging guest lectures by subject experts
- Celebration of important National and International days
- Incentives to high achievers for every semester
- Interaction with students and parents whenever the need arises
- Video lessons of important topics in history
- Projects are designed in such a way that every student gains first hand knowledge about the impact of legislations on our society in bringing the human welfare
- Special coaching for slow learners